

Please do not stop the local traffic and weather service offered by XM Satellite Radio. It is very convenient for me to access this at the office at the time I'm ready, rather than waiting on the local radio station's schedule. The XM service is a real convenience that I would truly miss. I am opposed to the deletion of this service, and in fact would like to see programming expanded to include local information based on zip code as the technology expands.